Country Negro Versus Town Negro.

An eternal warfare seems to rage between the country negro and the town darkey. This was illustrated at the passenger depot yesterday. A colored youth from Pike county approached a town negro, and the following conversation ensued:

"Whar bouts is de ticket office?"

"Right dar' fo' yo' eyes."

"Fo' whose eyes?"

"Yone."

"Is you de ticket office?"

"Look yer, nigger, don't you gimme none yo' slack."

"I'm a mighty slack man, ole man, w'en I gits stirred up."

"An' you'll git stirred up ef you stan' roun' yer foolin' longer me."

"Dats de kin' of ex'cise w'at I'm a pinin fer."

And with that they clinched and had a right lively tussle. They were separated, however, before a policeman came along, and the Pike county darky found the ticket office. The town negro, it may be well to mention, was badly used up.—Atlanta Constitution.

Too Mad to Marry.

Frederick Duehring, a Springwells veteran, and a comely German girl appeared before Justice Weber yesterday afternoon to be married. The girl refused to marry Duehring until he gave her a mortgage of $500 on his property. This he did, but immediately demanded a discharge of the mortgage. She assented, not knowing what it was, and the two stood up and were about to be pronounced man and wife, when Justice Weber informed the girl that the mortgage was good for nothing. The couple then had a warm dispute, and Duehring told the girl to go and that he would find some one else to marry him. Both left the office. In about thirty minutes Duehring returned to the office with Charlotte Stacy, an English woman. Justice Weber immediately performed the ceremony, and Duehring, who was recently divorced, is once more a married man.

THE rascals' perpetual candidate for President will be Samuel J. Tilden. With him in the White House they could run the Government and the Executive Mansion itself, and he never would surmise what frauds were being perpetrated. He acknowledges as much in testifying that his nephew and his secretary ran corruption at high pressure in his Gramercy Park residence—under his eyes and nose—but all without awakening a suspicion in his trusting, inexperienced, guileless young soul!—Chicago Journal.

PROCTOR tells us that the world is contracting. We do not believe it. It is now further from our back door to the corner grocery than it used to be from the old red schoolhouse to Mary Lyon's father's house on Pumpkin Hill.—Danbury News.

THE editor of the New York Herald invites a discussion of the intellectual condition of a woman in that city, who, when asked to boil the eggs just three minutes by the clock, she declared that it was impossible, because the clock was full a quarter of an hour fast.

WHEN a dog snaps at a fly that has been fooling round him four or five hours and misses it, he feels just like a girl who pours the full tide of her affection over a young man and suddenly discovers that it won't soak in.

AN exchange says: "Kerosene will make tea-kettles shine as bright as new." Yes; kerosene will do wonders. It will make a whole house shine so it can be seen for miles, but it is dreadfully destructive to paint.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

THURSDAY EVENING, FEB. 13, 1879.

A WRITER in the Pall Mall Budget calculates that Quakers, in consequence of their even life, will ere long reach the ages of Bible patriarchs. He says: "We have in the midst of us a sect which has carried speculation into practice. The Quakers, it is well known intermarry as much as the Jews, and like them, also, they make no converts. For more than 200 years they have been a peculiar people, a distinct race. Seven or eight generations are almost nothing compared with the generations that have come and gone since the first tortoise separated itself from the world and began to walk soberly. But yet, as the document you quote shows, the result already obtained is surprising. The average life of a Quaker must be set down as at least ten years longer than the average life of the ordinary Englishman. Should the rate of progression remain the same, in about 220 more generations, or in about seven thousand years, there is strong reason to expect that the average Quaker will live about as long as the tortoises of Galapagos. Of course, by that time tortoise life may have been also not a little lengthened, but that consideration need not trouble us now. To any one used to ponder on the vast antiquity of man as proved by the geologists and by Mr. Darwin, 220 generations are but as yesterday. I confess that, but for one consideration, I would share in Jeremy Bentham's wish, and would willingly surrender the few years of life that can be life me, if I might return to this world from time to time to see with triumph my calculations verified."

PHYSICIANS say that every kind of cold, bronchitis, diphtheria, sore throat, and pulmonary complaints are remarkably prevalent now. Sensible people ought to reflect that nine-tenths of these troubles arise from preventable causes. Wet feet are probably the first cause of a good many of them. There is no excuse for any one who catches cold from wet feet. Overshoes are cheap, and in this climate they ought to be worn all the time between the 1st of November and the 1st of May. It is never safe to be without them, except in summer. Henry Ward Beecher ascribes his robust health mainly to the wearing of overshoes; and all other men who know how to take care of themselves testify to the same effect. Another cause of throat and lung diseases is insufficient clothing. Girls and women who go "low-necked and short-sleeved" to parties take off their flannels to do so, and when consumption declares itself wonder how they got it. A still more general cause is overheating and bad ventilation indoors. The lungs, parched and poisoned in the house, are in ill condition to breathe cold or moist air out of doors. Carbonic-acid gas puts them in a state of incipient inflammation before they meet the fresh air at all. Attention to these simple dictates of common sense would prevent, we believe, a large proportion of the dangerous coughs and colds in this community which do not come from constitutional weakness or predisposition; and in the latter class of cases the need of careful watching is greater.

Senator Shields drew his $400 mileage fee last Saturday, and placing it on his desk in the Senate went off. An honest page took charge of the package until the owner came back. The General never did care much about money.

Here is another bold bit of imagery from the Talmage of last Sunday: "I have just set the door to glory a little open. I shall open it wider. Come ye of the world and look upon a stage where kings are the actors and burning worlds the foot-lights."

Seventy years ago yesterday was born an American who, for personal popularity, unswerving integrity, and the magnitude of his public services as a patriot and humanitarian, has not been outranked by any other man of the century —ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Gen. Grant was photographed in Paris by the light of the patent Jablochkoff candle. It is said that this light produces better portraits than sunlight, and as sittings can be given in the evening as well as during the day, it promises to become popular among photographers.

Mrs. Fanny Sullivant, wife of the late "Farmer King" of Ford county, Ill., denies the truth of the statement that her husband "sleeps in a pauper's grave." She writes: "While great ruin has indeed overtaken us in fortune, I had sufficient means of my own to lay him in his honored grave, in his own family place of burial, selected thirty years ago, at Green Lawn Cemetery, Columbus, Ohio, where he lived for fifty years, beloved and respected."

The Prohibition bill has been defeated in the Nebraska Legislature. We have ready room for the excuse of one opponent for his vote against it. He opposed the present bill because "it allowed too much liberty. It allowed a man to keep liquor for sale for mechanical, medicinal or chemical purposes. No certificate of any kind would be required to obtain the liquor; it need only be said that the buyer wanted it for one of these purposes. He might call for a pint of brandy to oil his sewing machine or a gallon of beer to wash his dog with."

Hymeneal Literature at the South.

When Hymen lights his torch and Cupid slings his bow across his shoulder and starts off in search of game, the Southern editor mounts his Pegasus and jogs off in the direction of Mt. Parnassus. In the Memphis Appeal the marriage of Dr. John W. Jones, of Lagrange, to Miss Lizzie M. Rives was announced the other day, and appended to the notice were the following beautiful gems of thought:

"The chivalry of the gallant Doctor has garlanded his chaplet with the fairest and sweetest flower that blooms in the parterre of beauty, whose fragrance will impregnate with redolency every impulse of his generous heart. The brightest star that radiates the galaxy of fascinating women shines upon and illumines his pathway with her bland smile and alluring light, whose resplendent effulgence, glowing with undimmed lustre each revolving season, will pilot the ingenious victor of so estimable a prize to the haven of happiness. The life of the intrepid bridgroom is coronated with the richest and most beautiful jewel that gleams in the casket of love, whose diamond brilliancy will color with a more vernal hue the laurels wreathed around his brow, gleaned from their voyage down the stream of Time. May joys and blessings as exquisite and hallowed as those engendered by a shower of roses scattered down by the hands of the Peri from the far-off gardens of Paradise crown your wedded future and increase with the lapse of years."

A PROTEST AGAINST USURY LAWS.

From the Boston Traveller, Feb. 8.

There appears to be a disposition in some quarters to revive the (so-called) Usury laws, and this is spoken of as being a "reform tendency." Nothing could be more absurd than to go back on the sensible change that has been made in this matter, money being just as much an article of merchandise as madder. If A borrows a sum of money with which to purchase madder, it is not thought improper in him to make a profit on his purchase; and it follows that B, from whom he borrows the money should be at liberty to make a profit on his property. Why should it be right to make a handsome profit on golden cups, and yet wrong to make one on golden coins? If the maker of plate is justified in charging largely for his production, why should the holder of dollars be required to sell them out at low rates? It seems to us that laws that forbid usury are attacks on property, and that they deserve to rank with Socialistic dreams. This is certain, that they never have been enforced; from which the fair inference is that it is beyond human power to enforce them. To enact them is deliberately to provide for the increase of hypocrisy and for the growth of falsehood in all its forms, from ordinary lying to the completest perjury, that in which men call upon God to witness that they are not engaged in the service of Mammon, the only god they worship.

Thirty Years a Stranger at Home.

From the Boston Transcript.

Men may escape the law, but their own consciences they cannot flee from. Many years ago a young man in this city was guilty of an offense against law, an offense which brought social ruin upon himself and his family. The man and his offense are forgotten by the public, yet he lives, and lives here in Boston. But from the day his offense was discovered—although, having escaped the law, he is free to come and go as he pleases—he has never been seen outside of his own home in the daytime. Sometimes, under the cover of night, he walks abroad to take an airing, and note the changes that thirty years have wrought, but an ever-active conscience makes him shun the light of day, and the faces of men, and he walks apart, a stranger in the midst of those among whom he has always lived.

Little Less Than an Imbecile.

Indianapolis News.

Tilden was popularly supposed to be a man of the greatest mental acumen; keen of insight, quick of action, strong of purpose. But by his own testimony he is little short of an imbecile. He knew nothing that was going on under his roof. Democrats will doubtless accept Mr. Tilden's testimony as exculpatory, but we doubt if there will be any yearning to "vindicate" him by another nomination. Back of all that will be asserted and denied of this cipher business, there will linger in every honest heart strong conviction that Tilden's confidential managers were thoroughpaced scoundrels, and that he did not exercise the shrewdness the world knows he has, to interfere with the actions which if successful were to benefit him alone.

The New Senator from Louisiana.

From the Cincinnati Israelite.

He stands to-day the foremost Jew in our country, and his coreligionists can feel assured that not only will no stain ever attach to him, but that wherever are found purity of official life, sterling integrity and spotless private character, there will also be found the name of Hon. B. F. Jonas, of Louisiana. As a matter of interest to the ladies, we might add that what Mr. Jonas will be in the council of the nation, his beautiful wife will be in its social circles. Endowed by nature with a superior intellect, she is as charming in manner as she is lovely in form and feature. We congratulate the Jewish people in the good fortune of having two such worthy representatives at the seat of Government.

MACON ITEMS.

A REPUBLICAN representative visited Macon yesterday and jotted down the following rambling notes:

Mrs. E. J. Cummings is selling off her entire stock of millinery goods preparatory to removing to Decatur.

T. C. Drinkall, druggist and general merchant, is confined to his home by illness. His store has been closed since Monday.

Johnston & Co. have the finest storeroom in Macon—large, light, and cleanly. The postoffice has been removed from its former close quarters to this store.

Grain buyers are paying 23 and 24 cents per bushel for corn.

Business at N. Failing's elevator is as lively as ever.

W. R. Whitaker takes life easy, and wears a "beaver" cap worth $1.00.

Ruby's Hotel is the only public house in Macon, and the travelling public give it deserving praise. The latch-string always hangs out, and none are permitted to go away hungry.

John Lane sold off R. K. Funk's personal property at auction yesterday, the sale bringing about $400. Next Thursday he will sell John Becket's goods at auction near Blue Mound.

Lewis F. Webb's new elevator is rapidly approaching completion. The "dump" will be ready inside of ten days.

Lewis & Harbert, grain buyers, continue in the even tenor of their way.

The health of the community is not good at present.

An Important Arrest.

Deputy-Marshal Chart. Roe returned to the city last evening, having in custody Martha McCartney, wife of the celebrated counterfeiter, Pete McCartney, who is now serving the State of Indiana in the Penitentiary at Michigan City. Mrs. McCartney was arrested at Neoga, Cumberland county, at the instance of E. G. Rathborne, of the U. S. Secret Service.

The specific charges made in the warrant is having in possession ten $50 counterfeit bills, but it is understood that Mrs. McCartney has been dealing quite extensively in coney money which her liege lord had stowed away to await his release from the Penitentiary. It also appears that she has allowed herself to forget her relations to the unfortunate Pete, and been endeavoring to remove the legal obstructions in the way of her marriage to one Dr. Mason, of Neoga. The Doctor was also incumbered with a wife, and the schemes of the pair coming to the ears of Pete, he gave them away.—Springfield Journal 13th.

English Workingmen.

England has not American competition alone to fear for her commercial decadence, as is illustrated by a story told by the London correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury. A buyer of tinsmith's work waited on a manufacturer with a good order, which must be completed to time. The manufacturer would not engage to have it ready at the moment named. He was at once told that he must take only as much as he was certain to finish. Said the master: "Then I must consult my men." It was Tuesday. They had not yet returned to work for the week. But most of them were gathered together in the neighboring public houses. Manufacturer and buyer made a tour in company, and found the men upon whose good will the fulfillment of the contract depended. They needed a great deal of pleading. The master had to make many promises. But after they had been besought, and persuaded, and bribed, they did at length condescend to do the work that lay in their hands.

IT IS ASTONISHING with what rapidity ulcerous sores and eruptive maladies are cured by HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE, an external antidote to unhealthy conditions of the skin which is preferred by physicians to every other preparation containing the carbolic element. It is undoubtedly the finest antiseptic and purifier extant. It acts like a charm on purulent eruptions and has also been successfully used for rheumatism and sore throat. Sold by S. M. FOREIGN NEWS.

The Great Strike at Liverpool.

More About the Plague.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 12.—Trade here is quite paralyzed by the strike, which has now extended to the carters and whole body of carpenters, some of whom were already on a strike. The strike among the sailors has become more general and great difficulty is experienced in obtaining crews, save at increased rates. Yesterday several ships were awaiting crews, but were firm. It is stated there are thirty-five grain laden ships at Queenstown, and that owners do not know where to send them. Meanwhile the grain may be heating in the vessels' holds and rendered valueless. There are many reports of intimidation by dock laborers and others, to prevent men from working until the dispute is settled. The steamship Lualaba, which was to have started for the west coast of Africa, Thursday, had not yet left her docks. Agents promise the men protection on the docks, but the men say they require protection outside also. The Cunard Company have all their vessels in Hussikson's dock, which is enclosed, and have provided within the dock-walls accommodation for the men brought from Glasgow. The local authorities maintain strict supervision with police and military, and none but people on business are allowed within the enclosure along the whole line of docks. There is to be another interview to day between the Ship Owners' Company and a deputation srom the strikers.

The strikers to-day refused their old wages and one hour longer work daily. A proposition of ship owners for arbitration was also rejected.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The admiralty announces that it has chartered fifteen steamers to carry troops and supplies to the Cape. This fleet includes the trans-Atlantic steamers Egypt, France, Spain, Russia, England, China, Olympus, Palmyra and City of Paris.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 12.—The steamers chartered to carry troops to South Africa, will be fitted out at some other port, on account of the labor strike. The owners engage to have the steamers ready for sea within a week.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The German Reischstag was to-day opened by Emperor William in person. In his speech from the throne he said he thanked the members for assisting in the suppression of the socialistic agitation, and hoped they would continue to support the government as far as was necessary for the cure of the Socialist evil. He announced the abolition of article 5 of the treaty of Prague, and referred with pleasure to the friendly relations with Austria and the results of the Berlin congress. He declared the relations between Germany and all other powers are satisfactory, and she would continue her influence in behalf of European peace.

The Emperor in his speech to-day alluded to the plague in Russia. He said the latest reports justify the hope that the energetic measures of the Russian government will shortly suppress the epidemic, when the traffic on the frontier will be restored on the neighborly footing which befits friendly nations.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 12.—The epidemic has entirely disappeared from Astrachan. No cases for several days.

QUEBEC, Feb. 12.—The snow storm to-day is the worst of the season. No trains have arrived or are expected.

BUFFALO, Feb. 12.—In consequence of the order in the Council of the Canadian Government, American cattle consigned here, via Canada roads, will be from twelve to twenty hours behind time, owing to reshipment necessary at Detroit. Dealers are bitter against the over-zealousness of the Canadian officials. No exports on the market this week, although considerable stock suitable to their wants was on sale. The dealers generally anticipate but little further trouble in exports.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION OF THE DURHAMS.

Yesterday we gave an account of the proceedings connected with the preliminary examination of the Durhams, up to the point where they were brought into court and entered into consultation with their counsel. After a brief consultation Mr. Lee announced that he was ready to proceed with the case.

In behalf of the People, State's Attorney Buckingham asked for a continuance on account of the absence of important witnesses.

Mr. Lee strenuously resisted the motion for a continuance, on the ground that the witnesses wanted by the People were mere myths, especially the one from Chicago. Mr. Lee claimed that the story about Brown having been arrested in Chicago, was trumped up by Detective Lee, who had been riding about the country and having a good time at the city's expense.

The motion for a continuance was as earnestly supported by the State's Attorney, and after a spirited and protracted discussion Justice Wood discharged Mrs. Durham, the woman Mason, and her little girl, and held Thomas Durham under $800 bail until Saturday morning, when Durham and Brown will have an examination. Brown was not brought into court yesterday at all.

The court house was densely packed during the entire afternoon, and much interest was evinced in the case.

Lost Money Restored.—Yesterday Mr. Thomas, of the Thomas House, on East Main street, had restored to him twenty-two dollars in money which he lost in the postoffice about a month ago. It was picked up by Mrs. Scheule on the same morning on which it was lost, who has since then made inquiries for an owner, and happening to hear that Mr. Thomas lost some about the time she found this, she went to see him, and he gave her a full description of the money he lost, both as to the amount and denomination of the several bills, which corresponded exactly with the money found by Mrs. Scheule, and the treasure was at once restored to its rightful owner.

Good Joke on a Detective.—The following story, which we find in the Champaign Gazette, is a pretty good one, and we commend it to the special attention of any of our police or constabulary who may have occasion to use a search warrant

One day last week officers Weller and Hanford went into a house to search for stolen property, and thinking they had a big job on hand, they took off their overcoats. After overhauling a lot of clothing, Weller got hold of Hanford's coat and began to go through the pockets. He found a book in which Charlie sets down the cost of his tobacco, eggs and "sich," and was on the point of saying, "Hello, Charley! here's your book that some fellow has stolen, when a laugh from Charley and some ladies brought him to a realization of the joke he had played upon himself.

Stapp's Chapel.—The interest in the meetings in progress at this church is steadily increasing from night to-night. Last evening there was a full attendance, and several penitents were at the altar for prayer, some of whom professed conversion The meetings are conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. MacBurney, who seems to have a happy faculty for directing a revival meeting. Services will be held this evening and to-morrow night. All are invited.

Universalist Church.—A fair congregation gathered at the Universalist church last evening, and an able and instructive discourse was preached by Rev. D. P. Bunn. Services will be held at this church this evening, on which occasion the pastor, Rev. S. F. Hebberd, will preach, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these meetings. The subject of discourse this evening will be the "Damned Soul."

THE RESULT.

Close of the Revival Services at the First M. E. Church—101 Accessions in the Past 2 Months.

The protracted meeting that has been in progress at the First M. E. Church for the past two months, formally closed last evening. The pastor, Dr. Goodwin, needs rest, after so long and severe an effort.

The closing meeting was an impressive and enjoyable occasion, such as has rarely been witnessed by the church. The room was well filled, and there were four accessions. At the close the names of eighty persons, who have applied for membership on probation, were called, and those present came forward and received the hand of welcome from the pastor and church.

Rev. Dr. Leaton left the church with a membership of less than 400. Dr. Goodwin's efforts have been of great benefit to the church and the cause of religion in general. The congregations have been largely increased, and the attendance at Sabbath School now number over 400.—Since last conference 101 have applied for church membership, by letter or on probation, and now, including those who have been reinstated, the First M. E. has a healthy membership of over 500.

It will be necessary to form new classes, and these will be organized immediately. Extra meetings will be held each week, and there will be no cessation in the work of the church.

A Republican reporter had a little chat with Dr. Goodwin in his cozy study this morning. He has been in the ministry for 25 years, and came to Illinois from Indiana in 1866. For two years he was Professor of English Literature in the Wesleyan University at Bloomington, and since his connection with the Illinois Conference has had pastoral charge of churches at the following cities: Lincoln, Quincy, Mattoon, Champaign and Danville. His largest salary was at Mattoon, where he received $1800 for one year and a parsonage. He is well pleased with Illinois people, and thinks his Decatur flock is blessed with more Christian brotherly love than any charge he has yet visited. The rich and the poor are treated alike, and all are welcome.

"As You Like It."—One of the largest, most fashionable and cultured audiences that has assembled at the opera house for many a day was present at the theatrical entertainment on last evening. Miss Fanny Davenport, the celebrated actress, supported by the Olympic Theatre Company of St. Louis, presented Shakspeare's most pleasing comedy of "As You Like It." Miss D.'s appearance in the difficult part of "Rosalind" was greeted with loud manifestations of delight, and the interest and pleasure of the auditors continued through to the fifth and last act. The "Cuckoo Song" by Miss Davenport was very pretty. The costumes of the company were simply elegant, and while there is little depth to the piece, it was presented entire in such a finished manner that we put it down as the richest theatrical treat of the season. The company appears at Springfield to-night and at Quincy to-morrow night.

A Grand Fair and Festival, for the benefit of the hospital, for three days and nights, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 19th, 20th and 21st, will be held at the tabernacle, at which time the following articles will be disposed of: An elegant silver tea set, a gentleman's dressing gown, a handsome carriage robe, a pair of cushions for an engine, and a great number and variety of other useful and ornamental articles Dinner and supper will be served, also oysters, ice cream and refreshments of all kinds. Fair to commence at 7 o'clock each evening—General admission, 10 cents. d&w1

An exchange asks: "Why is it that farmers are so easily gulled by swindlers? It must be their own fault. If they were half as suspicious of those slick-tongued strangers as they are of men they have known for years, we do not think they would be caught so often nor so easily." The matter is well worth the thought of our farmers generally, and may set them on their guard against the prowlers, who go about seeking whom they may deceive

Spring Elections.—In about a month after the city election comes that of the township, which involves the election of one supervisor, two assistant supervisors, an assessor, a collector, one commissioner of highways and sundry minor officers. We suppose that announcements for the township offices will not be made until after the city election is out of the way, though it is generally understood that Fred Smith will be on the war-path at an early day as a candidate for assessor

A MYSTERIOUS FIRE.

The alarm of fire which was sounded about 9 o'clock this morning, was occasioned by the slight burning of the residence of Mr. W. C. Pitner on North Main street. The fire was first discovered by some person starting to go up stairs, who found the east chamber, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Pitner as a sleeping room, full of smoke, which was issuing from a trunk sitting on the south side of the room. A vigorous application of water with buckets extinguished the fire before the men reached the spot, though hose company No. 1 and the hook and ladder boys went nearly there. The trunk from which the smoke issued was thrown out of the window, and the flames, which had commenced to feed upon the side of the room and floor under the trunk, were quickly squelched. The trunk in which the fire originated was entirely ruined, as was one sitting on top of it. The entire damage will not exceed $100.

As there had been no fire in the room, nor any lighted lamp since last night, the origin of the fire is a mystery, and the only theory on which it can be accounted for is, that there was spontaneous combustion in a lot of carpet rags which had been stored in the trunk in question.

The young ladies will continue their afternoon meetings at the 1st M E. church this week, and the young men will hold theirs at 7 p. m The teachers' meeting will be held to-morrow night. No public service to-night Dr. Goodwin announced that next Sunday morning he will preach in answer to the question, "Why am I a Methodist?" And at night, "Is there a Hell?"

Every person would have more vigor of mind and body, and mental clearness were they to use a daily diet of unbolted wheat flour. PERSONAL MENTION.

Oliver McKenzie personated "Romeo" at a masquerade ball given in Capps' Hall at Mt. Pulaski on Monday night.

Supervisor McNabb, who has been quite sick for a few days, is now better, and will doubtless be about town again in a few days.

Rev. W. A. Reynolds, pastor of the M. E. church at Warrensburg, made the Republican office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon. He reports an interesting revival in progress at his congregation.

We are indebted to the Champaign Times for the following: "Major Miller, of the Tuscola Review, is about to lead to the altar a blushing young widow of 45 summers, with four small children."

Fanny Davenport and the Olympic Theatre Co., of St. Louis, registered at the St. Nicholas yesterday. Mr Edwin Price and Miss Davenport remained here until this afternoon, when they left for Springfield on the 3:40 train.

Mrs. M. E. Dillehunt has purchased the residence property lately occupied by Chas. A. Conklin, on West William street, and on Thursday last moved her household effects from the Dillehunt homestead, north of the city, and took possession. We welcome this estimable lady and her amiable daughter to the pleasures of city life, and all their friends—and they are legion—will "second the motion."

Mayor Priest and Norman Pringle took C. H. Brown to Mrs. Butler's gallery this afternoon to get a photograph of the prisoner that copies may be sent to Chicago and elsewhere, for the purpose of identifying the accused, and, if the theory of the officers is correct, thus connect him with the robbery of Coroner Dunneen.

Miss Fanny Davenport, the charming actress and queen of the stage, on invitation, spent yesterday afternoon very agreeably at the residence of Mrs. Senator Oglesby, and in the evening took tea with the following: Miss May Latham, of Lincoln, Mr. Post, of Springfield, Miss Annie Gillett, of Elkhart, Miss Ida Bering, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ewing, Mr. Geo. A. Challis, Mr. Theron Powers and Mr. Edgar F. Ewing. Miss Davenport is a very brilliant conversationalist, and won the hearts and admiration of all by her charming manners and interesting conversation. She is not the niece of Mrs. Gen. Lander, with whom Mrs. Oglesby is intimately acquainted; she is the daughter of E. L. Davenport, and is no relation of Mrs Lander, whose maiden name was Jean Davenport. The error was just a little awkward, but the reception was none the less enjoyable for all that.

An Indian Pudding.

Stir half a teacupful of corn meal into a quart of sweet milk while boiling hot. Let it cool. After you have stirred it perfectly smooth, add four well-beaten eggs, one teacupful of either currants or raisins, apples, or other good dried fruit, if you have not fresh, and a little sugar, lastly, add one pint and a half of sweet milk. Bake slowly.

A WOMAN has solved the problem, which baffled the wits of Edison, of deadening the noise of the New York elevated railways. She clapped a handful of sand between two shingles, brought the outfit to the managers of the road, and asked them how much the idea seemed to be worth. They took time for reflection and experiments, and said it seemed to them worth about $10,000, and gave her $1,000 down. But, of course, woman is nothing and nobody, hasn't got the constructive convolution in her brain, and ought to stay at home and mind the baby.

DURING January there arrived at the port of New York 2,985 immigrants, while in January 1878, the arrivals were only 1,756. During the last twelve months, ending January 31, the arrivals were 121,924. During the previous twelve months the arrivals were only 96,273.

A Source of Much Bodily Evil.

If the habit of body becomes irregular, much evil is inflicted on the system. The stomach becomes dyspeptic, bilious symptoms develop themselves, the circu*lation* is contaminated, and the nerves share in the general disorder. It is of the utmost importance that the bowels should be thoroughly and speedily regulated when they grow derelict. The corrective agent best adapted to this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a wholesome, non-griping vegetable laxative, worth all the rasping cathartics invented since the time of Paracelsus. People who have been in the habit of using blue pills, calomel, and other drugs and cheap nostrums for constipation, should abandon such hurtful and useless medicines, and substitute for them this pleasant and gentle aperient, which not only produces the purgative effect naturally, but also strengthens while it regulates the bowels, stomach and liver. It moreover cures and prevents intermittent and remittent fevers, gout, rheumatism, debilty and urinary troubles. d&w1w

FRIENDLY SUGGESTIONS

To Travelers, as well as to Those Seeking New Homes in the West.

The summer of 1878 will long be remembered by many on account of the extreme heat, as well as the terrible plague that has visited certain sections of our country. Therefore, if you are about taking a trip to the West, ether for pleasure or to look out a location for a New Home, seek to locate on (or nearly so), the same latitude in which you formerly lived. The reasons for this are many. You will escape the severe climatic changes and fevers incident to North or South, consequently you will experience no poor health, which is a great draw drawback to the new settler, and in this way you become producers at once. The Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad is located upon the happy medium between North and South, running through the northern part of Missouri, where there is no plague or pestilence, and upon which line thousands of happy settlers are located, and on account of the wonderful fertility of the soil, together with the best of markets have become independent, and surrounded as they are with the best of schools and churches, together with all the home comforts, are a prosperous and happy people.

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS

THEY ARE WORTH THEIR

WEIGHT in GOLD

READ WHAT HE SAYS:

DR. TUTT:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

REV. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.

Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.
